

Johannesburg

The Bridge Group: Seminars

The Bridge Group of the Johannesburg Bar has been conducting a series of seminars since the middle of last year. The subjects of the seminars have ranged from "Current court practice directives" to "The development of law with the economic development of society with a religious perspective". Group members present most of the seminars, but guest speakers have been invited on a number of occasions. Prof Ellison Kahn was a recent guest speaker who spoke about "Law and Literature". Martin Brassey SC and Ms Deanne Wood are the organisers of the seminars. Pictured above are Deanne Wood, Prof Ellison Kahn and Martin Brassey SC.

Prizes for contributions to Advocate

Juta Prizes

Juta offers the following annual prizes:

- 1 A prize for the best contribution to Advocate. The prize winner will receive R1 000 worth of books.
- 2 A prize for the article which best enhances the application of South African constitutional law. The prize will consist of either a year's subscription to the SA Journal of Human Rights or a year's subscription to the SA Law Journal (SALJ); or a copy of the looseleaf title Constitutional Law of South Africa by Chaskalson, Kentridge, Marcus, Spitz and Woolman with two revision services free of charge.

- A panel of advocates nominated by the editorial committee will consider contributions and award the prizes.
- The decision of the panel will be final.
- Queries and correspondence should be addressed to:
The Editor, Advocate
PO Box 2260, Johannesburg 2000;
e-mail hfmellet@telkomsa.net

Butterworths Prizes

Butterworths offers the following annual prizes:

- 1 A prize for the article containing the most useful and best motivated law reform proposal.
- 2 A prize for the best article on a practice orientated subject.

Each prize will consist of R1 000 worth of Butterworths books, local or overseas, to be selected by the winners.

(continued from p15)

views on the administration of justice. The gathering will long be remembered.

From 7 – 11 October, eight silks of the Eastern Cape Bar, including John Whitehead SC, Murray Lowe SC, Izak Smuts SC, Richard Quinn SC and Jan-nie Eksteen SC, all of the Grahamstown Bar, sat as acting judges to assist in reducing a significant backlog of criminal appeals. All gave their time voluntarily, and without remuneration. Members of the Grahamstown Bar also assisted the administration of justice by appearing unpaid on behalf of the state in criminal appeals during the same session of the court. They were Johan Koekemoer, Torquil Paterson, Martin Glover, Jock McConnachie, Bevan Boswell, Charles Stamper and Sunil Rugunanan. The Bar is grateful to these members for the time and effort put in to reduce the backlog.

Johannesburg

Ons onthou...

Wyle Jan Engelbrecht
13 September 1952–
11 Julie 2002

Die Johannesburg Balie het een van sy interessante figure verloor. Jan was 'n beminde kollega en vriend vir diegene wat sy pad gekruis het. Hy was getroud en word oorleef deur sy vrou en twee seuns, onderskeidelik 10 en 13 jaar oud. Jan het senior status verwerf gedurende 2000 en het ook by geleentheid as regter in die WPA. waargeneem. 